9th Annual Christmas "Pajama Party" to Benefit Local Shelters

Step back in time & enjoy Christmas as it was in the 50s, 60s & 70s for a Retro Christmas "Pajama Party" to benefit Domestic Violence Services of Southwestern Pennsylvania. This event will take place at The Good Ol' Days Nostalgic Vacation House located at 914 Broad Avenue in North Belle Vernon on Thursday, December 7, 2017 from Noon – 8 pm. Christmas Cookies, Holiday Dips & Chips & Punch will be served.

Admission: New Pajamas for victims of domestic violence and their children. Sleepwear suggestions are: Lounging pants (especially sizes large – 2x) Sleep Shirts, and T-shirts, Children pajamas (up to size 12) and socks. More than a million women & children are victims of domestic abuse in the US and almost all who seek refuge arrive with just the clothes on their backs.

"In the spirit of an old-fashioned Christmas of giving and helping those in need at this time of year" said owner of The Good OL' Days Nostalgic Guest House Melanie Patterson, "this Christmas Pajama Party, along with your donations, will make this Christmas a little brighter for local women & children in our area." All are welcome, please plan to attend and bring a friend.

Opened in May 2009, The Good OL' Days House is a privately owned, unique Vacation House Rental located in North Belle Vernon. Featured in PITTSBURGH MAGAZINE in 2009, and PITTSBURGH 360 with Dave Crawly. It also featured in the current "Columbia Gas of Pennsylvania" TV commercial & was a former family home for more than 60 years and now has been enjoyed by many across the US & Canada as a favorite overnight museum offering a real blast to the past experience!
